Grant Name	Amount of Funding available	Funding Body	Opening and Closing Dates / Notes	Program Details	Source
Community Gambling Benefit Fund	$35000 - $100000	Queensland Government	Round 127 - TBC – The department is introducing a new online grants system. It'll be more modern and make it easier for organisations to apply for funding.	The Gambling Community Benefit Fund (GCBF) is Queensland's largest one-off community grants program and distributes approximately $60 million each year to not-for-profit community groups. The GCBF funding helps these groups to provide services, leisure activities and opportunities for Queensland communities.	Gambling Community Benefit Fund Department of Justice
Play On Sports Vouchers	$200 per child	Queensland Government	Applications for the next round of Play On! Sports Vouchers open on Monday 27 July .	The Play On! Sports Vouchers program is designed to help more young people get involved in organised physical activity. By reducing the cost of participation, Play On! Sports Vouchers make it easier for families to support their children in joining local clubs, trying new sports, and staying active in their communities.	Applying for and using Play On!
