COMMUNITY RUGBY LEAGUE MEMO

RE: Reiteration of Queensland COVID-19 restrictions
TO: All Regions, Clubs and Leagues
FOR: URGENT DISTRIBUTION

Queensland Rugby League would like to reiterate Queensland Sport and Recreation's recent message outlining the current restrictions impacting Queenslanders.

From 1am Friday, January 22, restrictions have eased for the Greater Brisbane region (Brisbane, Logan, Ipswich, Moreton and Redlands). This brings the Greater Brisbane region back in line with the rest of Queensland.

As a reminder, please note the following restrictions are specific to the sport, recreation and fitness industries.

Compliance with an Industry COVID Safe Plan continues to play a vital role in our return to play:

- The total number of people to attend the activity, training and / or competition at indoor venues is to be based on occupant density of one person per two square metres regardless of facility size
- For outdoor venues, physical distancing off the field of play is required
- Physical contact permitted on the field of play only
- At all other times, participants, coaches, officials, trainers and spectators are to observe physical distancing requirements
- Keep following the mandatory record keeping requirements for tracking and tracing purposes

When running a COVID Safe event:

- Indoor events: 500 people permitted at indoor events with a COVID Safe Event Checklist
- Indoor events can allow up to 100% of seated capacity when patrons are in ticketed, allocated seating
- Outdoor events: 1500 people permitted at outdoor events with a COVID Safe Event Checklist
- Larger events require a COVID Safe Plan

Open air stadiums can have 100% seated capacity (operating under COVID Safe Plan) with all patrons encouraged to wear masks on entry and exit.

While face masks are no longer mandatory, you are encouraged to:
